KUCHING: To create a memorable experience with the final year students, our Early Childhood Education program organized a Dinner and Award Night 2023 at one of the leading hotels here on September.

The event was jointly organized by our Final Year student and supervise by the Head of Early Childhood Education program. This annual dinner has always been a yearly event, participated in by ECE Lecturers, senior and junior ECE students. This year theme is 'Cultural Modern Night'.

ECE Dinner & Awards Night aims to acknowledge and celebrate outstanding academic and personal achievements of students in ECE program as well as to inspire and motivate students to excel academically and in their personal development by showcasing the achievement of their peers.

The Dinner and Awards Night was more extraordinary and meaningful than usual as it featured continuous dining, lucky draws, cultural dances, and shared happy moments.

During the event, Vice Principal took the opportunity to convey his appreciation to all the ECE lecturers and students for their hardworking efforts. He mentioned that junior and senior batches must mingle and get acquainted with each other.

He also emphasized that the final examination results must always be within the target range to achieve the college grade.

"Good results demonstrate the students' effort and motivation to achieve them, and employers will be convinced that they will put the same energy and motivation into working for that company," he said.

Meanwhile, Head of Program ECE in her opening address, congratulated all the ECE students for their efforts and good cooperation in the smooth running of the event.

She noted that organizing of such events has progressed from year to year, despite the fact that every year the final-year student takes over to run the show.

Thus, she added that ECE Dinner & Awards Night is another of ECE Signature event and without fail every time lecturer and students are looking forward to attend this annual event, strengthening their networking, taking photos with lectures, students and enjoying good food plus its luxurious evening environment, as another of their wonderful memorable experience.
